The LEADER Introduces

Edmund Lumley Jr.

Even if architects had press agents, Ed Lumley Jr., wouldn't need one; his creations are the monuments to his genius. It is a priceless thrill to one who conceives and creates to finally see the completed building masterpiece in which the desires of the client are expressed by his talents. Guy Lombardo's East Point House, reconstruction of the Freeport Powerhouse extension, Viebrock's, Baumann's, Black Oldsmobile, and the Sweet Clover Dairy building are but a few of his many projects.

I met this Freeport architect in his comfortable home at 254 West Lena ave. This is the neighborhood where famous people like Leo Carillo, Bert Clarke, Jim Diamond and Frank Shields maintained residences. In yesteryear it was the home of leading theatrical personalities. Music and the theatre were EDMUND LUMLEY, JR., traditional. Ed Lumley's mother was a concert singer and studio remains a major theme in the household today with Mrs. Lumley (the former Marjorie Dauch) playing the piano and Edmund III, the French horn.

Mr. Lumley is a tall, distinguishedly-grey, forty-five year old man. His tanned appearance speaks of his favorite sport, boating. He is also a faithful baseball fan, but he is in boating that the whole family share their sporting thrills. Ed is a member of the Spartan Lodge of Masons, Truck Co. FFD, Exchange Club, Past Commander of the South Shore Power Squadron, a former member of the 7th Regiment, 107th Infantry, N.Y. National Guard, N.Y. State Society of Architects, and, Northwest Civic Association. He served with the Coast Guard Auxiliary during the war, worked with Robert Moses in the survey of war areas, and was in charge of U.S. Navy specifications at Porto Rico.

Ed Lumley Jr. is a graduate of Freeport High School and Columbia University School of Architecture. He originally planned to become a mechanical engineer. His studies and knowledge in this field now prove to be great assets because an architect acts as co-ordinator of the complete building project. "He must know all about a lot of things. He has conducted his own practice since 1933 when he severed connections with the architectural department of the New York Central Railroad.

This is Edmund Lumley Jr., a top-notch architect whose work has been featured in the national magazine of the profession—a good man as a son, as a husband, and as a father.

Sewer Contracts Award Delayed Week Due To Nearness Of Village Debt Limit

Board Proposes Ordinance to Keep Vacant Lots Clean

Would Allow Entrance On Private Property To Clear Accumulations

The Village Board at its meeting Monday night in the Municipal Building set Monday night, June 5, for a hearing on a proposed ordinance which would grant the municipality power to clean up private property and assess the cost against the owner.

This would include "property upon which dried grass, weeds, brush, waste paper, and other inflammable materials have been permitted to accumulate."

The proposed ordinance, numbered 166, would be an amendment to Ordinance 20. Civic associations long have contended the village should take this action. The Atlantic South Civic Association, which covers a territory covered by acres of swamp grass has been a leader in this respect.

A public hearing was held on a proposed ordinance relating to the licensing and regulation of existing and future installations of air conditioning and refrigerating units. When one speaker inquired for information concerning the matter.

Billmeyer Explains New Telephone Rates For Freeport Area

Service Expanded As Toll Go In Effect

New telephone rates fixed by the Public Service Commission in its decision on the application of the New York Telephone Co. for permission to increase its charges to meet the increased cost of operations, materials, taxes, etc., are now in effect in this area. And with the higher tolls the service of the company has been expanded.

Just how the new rates affect subscribers in this area was explained this week by William B. Billmeyer, the manager.

"The metropolitan telephone service plan which becomes effective with the new rates will allow each Freeport 8, 9 and Baldwin 3 resident customer with flat-rate service to make any number of toll-free calls to 112,000 telephones in the Baldwin 3, Freeport 8, 9, Garden City 7, Hempstead 2, 7, Long Beach 6, Lynbrook 3, 9, Massapequa 8, Rockville Centre 6 and Wantagh 2 central offices," Mr. Billmeyer said.

"This compares with 29,000 telephones they have been able to call toll-free in the Freeport 8, 9, Baldwin 3 and Wantagh 2 exchanges only," Mr. Billmeyer continued.

"Message-rate customers in Freeport 8, 9, and Baldwin 3 will be able to call 174,000 telephones for one cent," (Continued on Page 3)

L.I. Humane Ass'n. Contracts to Act As Dog Warden Here

The Long Island Humane and Dog-Protective Association, Inc., has become the dog warden for this community under a contract signed by Mayor Robert L. Dossie and President James H. Cruikshank Monday night prior to the village Board meeting. The contract is unique among such pacts, for the association assumes all financial obligations involved for an annual stipend of $2,400, part of which is to be returned to the village if the number of animals seized by the representative of the association falls below a fixed figure.

The association is to maintain and operate its shelter on Halsey ave. at its own expense for unlicensed dogs or untaxed dogs, and for lost, strayed or homeless dogs seized and found running at large in the village. However, President Cruikshank has explained the association will not go about seizing

Property Owners In Dist. 13 and 15 To Canvass Areas With View to Getting People To Paying Assessments In Full Immediately

Action on the awarding of contracts for the construction of sewers in Districts 13 and 15 was delayed a week at a joint meeting of the Village Board and Sewer Commission Monday night in the Municipal Building.

This action was taken because the village is so near the debt limit it was deemed unwise to proceed until it had been determined approximately how many property owners would be willing and able to pay their assessments in full instead of taking advantage of spreading payments over 15 years, thus reducing the size of the bond issue to finance the project.

Mayor Robert L. Dossie and Leo F. Fisher, chairman of the sewer commission, questioned numerous property owners in District 13, which includes Woodcleft ave. and the adjacent area. They expressed the opinion many of the property owners would pay the assessments so as to get sewers in the quickest possible time. They agreed to make a canvass of nearby owners in the district and report back at another meeting.

The lowest bid for the work in District 13 was $324,496 submitted by George W. Sammis, local contractor. This was for using manholes of concrete blocks, while if bricks were used the cost would be $328,315.

Other bids were as follows: Gull Contracting Co., Flushing, $352,817.50 and $355,467.50; J. C. Peterson Construction Corp., Baldwin, $359,418.76 and $371,538.76; Zaza Construction Co., Inc., Hewlett, $368,155 and $370,315; Hendrickson Bros., Valley Stream, $354,107.50 and $368,297.50; C. Salvatore & Sons and Joseph Mele Construction Co., East Orange N.J., $450,862.50 and $467,282.50, and Horn Construction Co., Merrick, $422,882.50 and $409,632.50.

The Zaza Co. was low with bids of $51,704 and $51,864 for the District 15 project also in the southern section. Other bids were Merrick Utility Associates, Inc., $54,326 and $55,188; John O. Peterson Corp., $55,800 and $55,708; Horn Co., $51,521 and $56,121; Salvatore & Sons, $63.80 and $53.34.

Recreation For Ageing and Aged Is Planned By Community Council

Recreational and educational facilities for the ageing and the aged are to be provided shortly if plans the Freeport Community Council has in mind materialize. Such a project can be supported with state funds. And Mrs. Henrietta Rabba, superintendent of education for the ageing and the aged of the State Department of Education is to speak on the subject at the annual meeting of the Council Monday night in the Municipal Building.

Former Village Trustee John F. DeLorme is temporary chairman of the Council's committee which has been studying the possibility of such a work in Freeport. He has obtained facilities where 50 persons can congregate Mondays and Tuesdays from 10 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. to engage in various activities if the plans are carried out.

Mr. DeLorme said many people past middle life are lonely and would enjoy having a place where they could congregate with people of their own age. He added recreational facilities such as card playing, checkers and chess could be provided, while others, just wanting to while away the time, could just sit and talk. And the women could dress to the Leader 20 South Main St., Freeport, L.I.

Also instruction might be given in ceramics and other subjects members of the group might like to take. Teachers would be provided by the state.

Samuel Israel has been nominated to succeed Mrs. Harold W. Batlin, president of the Council for two years. The rest of the slate to be submitted by Russell E. Hotelling, chairman of the nominating committee, is as follows: Ray E. Clemens, vice-president; Mrs. Otha Becker, secretary; Mrs. Daniel Friedman, public relations; William J. Martin, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Batlin, immediate past president; Mr. Hotelling, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Kelly, the Rev. R. G. Harris, and Mrs. Arthur W. Harrigan, Jr., members of executive committee for two years, with Judge Hilbert R. Johnson, William E. Hughes, Mr. DeLorme and Mrs. Frank Varnum, for one year.

Besides Mr. Hotelling the nominating committee comprised Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Harrigan, and Miss Marion Fogarty, consultant.

Magidson and Mayer Awarded Honor Society Scholarships

James S. Magidson and Richard J. Mayer, seniors of the Freeport High School have been awarded scholarships by the National Honor Society as a result of competitive examinations in which students of 1,702 schools throughout the nation took part.

Magidson, who is the president of the Freeport Chapter of the National Honor Society, was granted a scholarship of $200. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Magidson, 192
South Main st., he plans to enter Yale in September. He has been on the editorial staff of the school newspaper and the class yearbook;
vice president of the Science Club; participated in bowling and the Senior Variety Show, and served on the assembly and dance committees. He is second in rank in the graduation class of 248.

Mayer, this year's valedictorian, is secretary of the Honor Society and was one of twenty-nine students winning honorary scholarships. These students achieved distinguished records in the General Aptitude Test and in their schools comparable to the 1950 scholarship winners, but in the opinion of the National Honor Society Scholarship Board they have sufficient financial resources to assure their attendance in college.

The scholarship winner is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Julius A. Mayer, 187 North Ocean ave. He was president of the Science Club, editor of the News Service Staff, a member of the Stamp Club and Assembly Committee, and a delegate to the General Organization Council. He has won a medal for excellence in German and one from Bausch and Lomb for science.

The Editor's Notebook

If the old saying is true that all good things come in threes, then this should be our best issue since THE LEADER changed hands . . .
A lot of thought is going into our efforts to make this a really good newspaper. . . . Many words of encouragement have come to us . . .
we deeply appreciate them all, and with your good wishes, we will just keep on trying.

The response to our appeal for the YOUTH CENTER in BEN-NINGTON PARK has been wonderful. . . . Earlier this week, with Joe Goldblatt, it was my pleasure to visit many of our merchants and all of them were wonderful in their praise of this worthy project. . . .
all week long our phone has been ringing, and people have been coming by the office, and stopping in on the street telling us it was one of the finest projects we could have sponsored. . . . anything that helps the YOUTH of our community is a worthy cause. . . . The concert to benefit this YOUTH CENTER is tonight at the HIGH SCHOOL.

Tickets will be available at the door (they are only one dollar each), and all the proceeds are for this project. . . .
I wonder how many village officials have the sincerity and honesty of "BOB" DOXSEE, Mayor of Freeport? . . . Whenever you speak to him you cannot help but feel that here is a man who has the courage to say what is in his heart.

In our mail-bag this week was a letter saying in effect "why must the taxpayer pay for the political junket our President is now on?"
and in the same mail came another letter telling us "it is the duty of the President to report to the people" . . . so there you are folks . . . you have your choice.

Hope you like the paper this week. . . . See you next Thursday.

Educators Of Nation Call On More to Become Teachers

Dr. John W. Dodd, superintendent of schools and president of the Department of City and Village Superintendents of the State of New York, attended the annual meeting of the presidents of state organizations of school administrators in Chicago at which a statement was issued indicating the need of more young people entering the teaching profession to supply the demand for competent instructors. The meetings were held last Friday and Saturday.

Every state in the Union was represented by its state president. The president of the American Association of School Administrators, Warren T. White, presided. Matters pertaining to the public schools of America of a national, state and local character, were discussed. The organization of the national program for next year was one of the topics; also general reports pertaining to state legislation and state programs in public schools.

The following statement was issued by the presidents of state organizations of school administrators:

"Studies which have been made

DR. JOHN W. DODD

standard certificates have had to be employed in the schools this year.

"This means that about one teaching position in every ten is now filled by a teacher with a substandard education, in contrast to 1940 when one out of 200 held such an emergency license. Thousands of children are being taught by teachers with no more than a high school education. The American people today are faced with the responsibility of expanding the national educational facilities to take care of the needs which have arisen from the increased birth rate, and remedying many serious deficiencies which we have inherited from the depression and the war."

Billmeyer Explains

message unit in all the above exchanges and in addition the Cedar-hurst 9, C.U.I.S. 5, Floral Park 2, 4, Franklin 4, Hicksville 3, 5, Primrose 5, Valley Stream 5 and Westbury central offices.

"Calls to many points in these expanded areas have previously cost at least 10 cents."

Toll Call Rate Reduced

"All customers will benefit from the fact that the rates for calls to most other points on which we have been collecting toll charges within this metropolitan telephone area are reduced at least five cents."

"Now for the first time, message-rate residence service will be offered on an individual-line basis to suburban customers in the Metropolitan Plan Area at $4.25 a month for the first 75 message units. Most customers with individual flat rate service may obtain message-rate service immediately while those with party lines may have to wait until individual lines are available."

"A return-mail postcard is being sent to all flat-rate residence customers so that those who wish to have the new message-rate service may advise us."

Message Rates for Business

"All business telephones throughout the entire metropolitan telephone area," Mr. Billmeyer further pointed out, "under the plan are on a message-rate basis. Since 1939 when this type of service became available throughout the suburban territory, more and more flat-rate business customers subscribed to it so that today more than 70 percent of all suburban business customers have message-rate telephones. The new monthly charge for this service on an individual-line basis is $6 for the first 75 message-units."

"In the Freeport 8, 9, and BAL-win 3 exchanges, the other new monthly rates will be: Flat-rate residence service: individual line, $4.75 a month; 2-party line, $4 and 4-party, $3.25."

"All rates are quoted exclusive of the temporary 2 per cent surcharge authorized by the Commission, and of taxes, as well as exchange line mileage where applicable."

"Toll rates within New York State remain generally unchanged from those effective June 9, 1949.
Some calls of 21-34 miles increase five cents for the initial period. The new initial period will be four minutes for station-to-station calls of 10 cents to 25 cents and three minutes for all calls of more than 25 cents. Rates for most calls between Long Island and other points in New York State are reduced."

Justice Pette Pays Elk's Tribute On Mothers Day

Calls for Vigilance In Face of Threats Of Communism in U. S.

Supreme Court Justice Nicholas M. Pette, a member of Queensboro Lodge for 34 years, gave the address at the annual observance of Mother's Day by Freeport Lodge, 1233 E.P.O. Elk Sunday night in the lodge room. He was introduced by Thomas F. Dougherty, chairman of the Mother's Day committee, and Exalted Ruler George W. Berns presided.

"The trouble in the world today," Justice Pette said, "is that we are spending too much time in building soldiers, too little time in building men of character; too much time in building weapons of war; too little time in rebuilding deteriorated moral values; too little time in applying the energies that could be used not in destroying, but in building and in curing the ills of the members of the human family."

"Let us face the fact that the political leadership of the world, either self-imposed or elected, has failed miserably in securing freedom and a lasting peace to the world."

Freedom Within Reach of All
"Much that we hear and read confuses and frightens. Of one thing we may be sure, freedom lies within the reach of each individual. And if we are to have freedom we must fight for it, to preserve it, otherwise, it is as Cardinal Spellman said in his 'Road to Victory'."

"After fighting two devastating wars in which we offered the flower of our youth, sons of our mothers whom we honor today, we are still fighting a psychological war with Russia at a cost of 5 billion dollars in national defense, and 15 billion dollars in European recovery. Still we seek no territorial or despotic superiority. All we wish is respect for the human dignity of men and the right to be free within the framework of our government."

"We all feel the impact of the times, none the least of which is the threat of those forces which would destroy the church and the influence of the family as the strongest of our American institutions. Communists today are at work within the very gates of America. There

Message To Our Citizens

On Monday, May 15, the U. S. Savings Bonds Independence Drive opens throughout the Nation, continuing through the Fourth of July. Its symbol is the Liberty Bell. Its theme: Save for your Independence.

The year-round Savings Bonds program, of which this campaign is an important part, fosters the spirit of self-reliance and the urge for self-betterment that, along with enterprise, inventiveness, productivity, and thrift, have carried us forward since the first settlers braved the wilderness to build a free America.

Through regular savings, we build up reserves against misfortune and provide income for later years, thus lessening the burden upon others. We accumulate funds for worthwhile purchases. And, by saving for the lean years, we help to stabilize business and employment.

As your Mayor, I urge all who are able to do so to buy an EXTRA bond between the dates of May 15 and July 4, and to encourage others to buy U. S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan and through banks and post offices.

Through thrift, we can all help to secure freedom and independence for ourselves, our community, and our Nation.

ROBERT L. DOXSEE, MAYOR

are few walks in American life which they do not traverse. Their allegiance is to Moscow; their hopes are spurred by the writings of Marx and Lenin, not Jefferson, Madison and Lincoln. Atheistic materialism is their idol, the destruction of the God of our fathers is their goal. Wherever they may be, remember that they have in common one diabolical ambition, to—weakens and eventually destroys American democracy.

Calls for Vigilance
"A strong America, materially and spiritually, is the constant beacon of light, buoying the hopes and aspirations of millions of men and women who have been crushed under the yoke of Communist tyranny, working under the protection of the freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights they seek to destroy."

"Let us be ever vigilant, let us not lull ourselves into a false sense of security. Let us join the procession of militant men and women all over, marching forward shoulder to shoulder building a better society, better men, a better world devoted to the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of Man."

A musical program included organ selections by Karl A. Reich and baritone solos by Robert T. Davis, Jr., "Wonderful Mother of Mine," "Bless This, Our Home," and "Mother Macree." Past Exalted Ruler Rene A. Carreau gave the ritualistic tribute to Mother, and Squire C. Curtis Fulton, Esteemed Leading Knight J. George Glynn, Esteemed Loyal Knight Benjamin J. Reiner, Esteemed Leading Knight Dr. Fred T. Bean and Chaplain George B. Tydeman participated in the exercises. Carnations were distributed to all red for those whose mothers were living and white for those who have lost their mothers. Supper was served for the officers, Justice Pette and Mr. Dougherty before the exercises.

Baptist Men Dine Mothers, Daughters

Chicken a la King Served Children Entertain Following Banquet

The Men's Club of the First Baptist Church once a year takes over the culinary duties and gives a dinner to the women and girls of the church. This has come to be one of the most largely attended events of the church year. The annual mother and daughter dinner given Saturday night, drew an attendance of 112.

The men served chicken a la king with all the fixins and according to the women it was a dinner fit for a king. Following the dinner a program was put on by the children of the church under the direction of Mrs. Gilbert S. Flint, with Mrs. Albert E. Miller at the piano. The program was opened with a tribute to Mother's Day by Mrs. Flint and her daughter Judy. Gail Miller sang a solo and James Flint played a violin solo. A play "Little Women," was presented by pupils of the Children's Theatre Project directed by Mrs. Miller and Miss Wyneta Fisher. In the cast were Barbara Doeschner, Muriel White, Barbara Guardieu, Joyce Tessier and Barbara Bartlett.

Next the junior choir sang several numbers and Pamela Rockwell gave a monologue. The program was concluded with a missionary sketch, "The Waiting Guest" in which Flint, Carol Helwig, Pamela Rockwell, Madeline Van Bunkirk and Gourley Gahn took part.

Mr. Miller is president of the Men's Club. Among those who helped prepare the dinner were Joseph Pitcher, Frank C. Filkins, N.

H. Megahan, Mr. Flint, Silyn Evans, Dennis Pollock, William N. Boyle, L. L. Wilson, and Charles Johnson. Edward Aemissegger had charge of the waiters, assisted by Arlie Martin and Charles Gahn as head waiters, Arlie Martin Jr., Gourley Gahn, Wallace H. Campbell, Robert and Frederick Roemer, Frank C. Filkins, Jr., and Bruce Cook.

To show their interest in the efforts of the Rev. R. G. Harris, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, to provide a Youth Center for Benning Park, the merchants raised a considerable sum for the project in a store-to-store canvass. Above, Irving Grebner (left) president of the Freeport Merchants' Association, and Joseph Goldblatt, president of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce, are shown presenting the money they collected to Pastor Harris in the office of The Leader last Saturday afternoon.

'Phones Serve in Numerous Ways In Life Today 'Down on the Farm'

Rural New York Survey Reveals That Subscribers and Their Neighbors Too Rely on Voiceways in Performing Many Necessary Tasks

Is the telephone a necessity or just a convenience "down on the farm"? Is it used chiefly for party-line gossip or as another business tool for the farmer?

The answers to these and many other questions on how the farmer uses his telephone are disclosed in a survey by the New York Telephone Company which shows how vital a part the telephone plays in farm life today.

Even without such a survey, the telephone company has evidence that in the minds of most rural area residents the "necessity" attitude has more adherents than the one which regards the telephone as a convenience.

Approximately two-thirds of these farm families, it was revealed, make or receive as many as four to eight telephone calls a day, and well over half of the distance calls each month.

Among farm families which did not have a telephone themselves, more than half reported they depended on using someone else's telephone from time to time to call a doctor, a veterinarian, a hospital, or make other emergency calls as well as those necessary for the business operation of the farm.

As a result of the increasing demand for telephones in rural areas, telephone companies throughout the State have embarked on building programs to provide the necessary equipment. Last year the New York Telephone Company installed telephones for 13,000 new customers in these areas. Since the war the company has spent 17 million dollars in expanding rural telephone facilities and this year another 6 million dollars of new construction is planned, to extend more and better telephone service to folks who live "out in the country."

phone only as a convenience. For more than three out of every four establishments in the rural territory of the New York Telephone Company now have telephone service, and there is continued demand among these families which have not as yet received telephones.

Sixty-nine per cent of the farmers who were consulted reported that they used the telephone "fairly often" for ordering repairs, parts, etc., and over three-quarters had frequent occasion to use it for ordering feed and supplies. Other purposes for which the telephone was found to be frequently used by a large proportion of the farmers included: Making doctor, dentist and other appointments, calling

BUILD WITH GOOD TASTE

THE BOLTON has a plan which includes an unusual number of closets. It also calls for a great deal of free circulation between the rooms. Closets in The Bolton include a wardrobe in every bedroom; a linen closet; a coat closet; a broom closet and a conveniently large storage closet in the hall. There is also a handy coat closet provided for in the rear entry.

All of The Bolton's rooms open into the hall. There is easy access to the front door from the kitchen. The modern work room has corner windows over the sink. It also has L-shaped cabinets. And there is a storage cabinet on the inside wall as well as ample dining space in The Bolton's efficient kitchen.

Construction of The Bolton is frame with wide siding. The walls and ceiling are insulated. The roof is covered with asphalt shingles. The Bolton's dimensions are 36 feet wide and 26 feet deep. It contains a full basement. There is an area of 1,001 square feet and a volume of 19,890 cubic feet in The Bolton.

Color and Spring!

By HENRIETTA L. GUTHY Interior Decorator

Color—how we look forward to its magic after a drab, gray winter. I couldn't help but THINK color as I drove past the acres and acres of tulip, not too many miles away from our own community. The fields where they are being grown commercially were a mass of one solid color, and then there would be a small garden with rows of mixed tulips, red, yellow, pink, lavender and white, or perhaps just one of two colors against a background of azalea coming into bloom. Each new picture presented exciting possibilities for a room or an entire house.

This time of year the market is flooded with beautiful fabrics for summer draperies or slip covers. Our first impulse is to buy the brightest and gayest ones. The season is young, we have only glimpsed daffodils and forsythia—saw yellows that can be used almost anywhere, and some delicate magenta and other flowering trees. Our impatience for the full-bloomed summer garden, a profusion of color, attracts us to the fabrics which present that picture and we are easily carried away, often to our undoing. I agree with you, they are lovely—and just the "sulphur" and molasses we need just now—out before you rush out and buy 20 or 30 yards to cover everything you are tired of living with all winter—stop to consider a few important points.

Can your room take all this pattern and color? If you can discard or cover up everything in your room BUT large areas of plain backgrounds, such as walls and floors, go ahead and have your fling! But remember, pattern considered at long range don't often mix well. If you have one dazzled eye on the fabric before you, and the other eye reaching back into your own home, trying to remember just what the exact color or pattern of your wallpaper is, or the rug, or even one chair, you had better hesitate.

Remember—too, that a long hot summer is predicted, and too much pattern and blazing color! The look good now, is confusing and stimulating, two things we do not need when the thermometer climbs to 96. Think how cool you are at the beach, especially if you are on the beach where there is nothing but blue sky, blue-green water and beige-white sand. It is not always the ocean breeze that cools you because the hot sun is still there. It is the space and distance uncluttered by too much pattern and color.

Especially for you with beautiful and abundant flower gardens, a simple room is best as a foil for the armful of blossoms you love to bring into the house to add their color and fragrance. What could be more discouraging than to arrange a beautiful bouquet in the garden, carry it hopefully into the living room only to discover it does not fit in anywhere. You just can not put it on the table before the window, because the drapery has an entirely different bouquet, and your real, living flowers need a setting where they dominate.

So . . . if you must have some of that lovely chintz today, well, buy a small piece, it will do your soul good and your pocketbook not too much harm, take it home, mix it with all my warnings in mind, then make a refuge for the bath room of it, or a sun suit for your three-year old daughter, or still better, hide it away until some bleak, cold day next November. Then it might be just the right thing to bring cheer into your house all winter, and at the same time help keep the florist bills down, when you can't reach into your own garden.

In subsequent articles I will plan rooms for spring and summer that will not be drab and uninteresting, but rather a pleasing background for a more colorful you and the part of your garden that you bring indoors.

Republican Club Games Night Provides Plenty Of Amusement

Mrs. Elaine Hammerl proved to be the champion carpenter at the social games night of the Freeport Republican Club Thursday night in the Legion Dugout. In a competition with Mrs. Ottilie Hager and Mrs. Anna Z. Amberman she drove three nails into a bit of two by four, not only in the quickest time, but without missing the head of a nail once, and consequently without injuring herself in the competition. As a matter of fact there were no casualties, such as bruised fingernails, among the trio.

And as for the men, Joseph Stiehler was adjudged the best operator of a nursing bottle. With Anthony Minichello, George Hessler and Frederick Trautwein as the opposition, the four tugged on the nipples for what seemed hours. Though at the end it appeared as though the efforts of all had been in vain, the judges ruled Mr. Stiehler had succeeded in reducing the contents, water not milk, slightly more than the others and he got the prize.

These were two of a program of competitions that took up the bulk of the evening at the club's monthly meeting. And the large attendance indicated the members appreciate varied programs.

Alan Vollmer and Robert Furman engaged in a pillow fight while blindfolded and it was lucky precaution had been made to protect those in the audience who happened to be sitting in the vicinity of the contestants. Other events were three quizzes, musical, sports and general, and a game called musical chairs.

Mrs. Julius L. Birgenthal asked the questions and kabitlers in the audience revealed the answers to most of them before the contestants had an opportunity to display their knowledge or their ignorance.

Ernest L. Behrens was timekeeper and Everett C. Furman the judge. President Ralph L. Marshall, presided over a brief business meeting, at which it was announced the paid-up membership had reached the 747 mark. New members voted in were Raymond V. Sweeney, Jr., Robert J. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Morone, Harold Friedman, C. Leslie Potter, Martin F. Amador, Emilie Restomo, Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Nelson, George G. Harrington and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Perry.

Nelson N. Terry and his committee with the assistance of the hostesses with Mrs. Hager as chairman, served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

F.H.S. Band in Concert Jones Beach May 28 To Feature Memorial Day 1950 Opening Other Attractions

The Freeport High School band will give a concert at the Music Shell, Jones Beach State Park, on Sunday, May 28, at 3 P.M. This will be a feature of the Memorial Day week-end during which all the facilities at the park will be opened for the season.

"The West Bathhouse," with its heated swimming pools and the East Bathhouse serving the ocean and bathing areas will be open daily for the 21st season of operation from that date on.

All facilities including the Boardwalk Restaurant at the Central Mall will be open daily. Cafeteria service and refreshment stands will be available at the Central Mall and at other locations along the waterfront including two new refreshment buildings now being completed at Oceanfront Parking Field No. 2 near the West Bathhouse and Oceanfront Parking Field No. 6 near the East Bathhouse.

Another new facility to be operated by the Long Island State Park Commission at Jones Beach for the first time this year is the Gilgo Pavilion at the Gilgo Park section of Jones Beach about 7 miles east of the Jones Beach water tower, formerly known as the Gilgo Coast Guard Station.

This brick and stone building is now under the jurisdiction of the Commission and will be available for the exclusive use of organized group outings during the period beginning with the last Saturday in May and ending with the last Sunday in September. Applications for permits to use the Gilgo Pavilion may be obtained in advance from the Superintendent of Jones Beach State Park.

Other facilities at Jones Beach which will be available daily starting with the Decoration Day week-end include the 18-hole pitch and putt golf course, pedal boats, roller skating rink, archery, paddle tennis, table tennis, handball courts and fishing station. League softball stadium near the boardwalk at the East Bathhouse will also begin with the Decoration Day week-end.

Other special events scheduled for the coming season include the popular free pool shows featuring the water ballet, surfboard water polo, nightly hole-in-one golf tournament and free outdoor dancing at the Music Shell.

Mitchel Field to Observe Armed Forces Day Sunday

Mitchel Air Force Base will join other military installations in this country and overseas in observing the first Armed Forces Week, which will be highlighted here by Armed Forces Day on Sunday with an open house celebration.

Mitchel's gates will be opened at 11 A.M. and a complete program has been arranged to last until 4:30 p.m. when a Retreat Parade will wind up the celebration, according to Lieut. Edward W. Snyder, Project Officer for Armed Forces Day. Conducted tours of the base facilities and installations with trained airman personnel as guides will be a highlight of the day's activities. These tours will give Long Islanders a chance to look behind the scenes at an Air Force base from the parachute shop to the link trainer, where pilots receive instruction in instrument flying without ever leaving the ground, and the altitude chamber which is used to test new oxygen apparatus at simulated conditions up to 30,000 feet without endangering the lives of airmen.

The theme of observances throughout the United States is "Teamwork for Defense," stressing unification of the Armed Services. Previously the Army, Navy and Air Force celebrated individually each year on different days.

Northeast Civic Members Urge 20-year Bonds For New School

Members of the Northeast Civic Association advocated financing the construction of the new school for the southwestern section of the village with a 20-year instead of a 30-year bond issue at the monthly meeting held Friday night in the home of Harry J. Berkowitz, 215 North Ocean ave. William E. Crevoiserat and William H. Schneider contended that by so doing the overall cost of the $1,300,000 issue on which a special election is to be held on Thursday, June 15, could be reduced from $175,000 to $180,000 by a saving in interest. Not only would the number of years over which the interest would be spread, but a 20-year issue could be sold for a lower interest rate it was contended also.

However, Clifton B. Smith, vice-president of the Board of Education, pointed out that if this were done amortization payments during the first few years would have to be increased from $43,000 to $65,000 with a consequent increase of tax rate. No formal action was taken by the association because of the lateness of the hour when the meeting adjourned.

Leo F. Giblyn, president of the Board, after being presented by President Muller, explained the plans for the proposed 28-room building to be erected on a site bounded by West Merrick rd., South Bayview ave., Smith and Washington sts. At the conclusion of this outline he was pitted with questions for approximately two hours.

Mr. Crevoiserat pointed out that the bonded indebtedness of the school district now totaled $2,600,000, which with the $1,300,000 it is proposed to spend on the new school would increase the total to $3,900,000 leaving only $600,000 available to provide for the expansion of the school facilities within the next few years. He proposed that the plans for the West Merrick rd. school be enlarged to increase the number of pupils it is proposed to accommodate in the building.

He accused the Board of "extravagance" and "poor financial planning," in the past, and asserted it was continuing along the same lines in the present instance.

Mr. Schneider contended that the Board always had awarded the contract for preparing school plans to a single architect instead of opening the project to competitive bidding with a possibility of obtaining a more economical structure.

In response to a proposal that changes might be made in the plans to permit a reduction in the cost of the school, Mr. Giblyn said it had been the policy to use material which would stand up and prove more economical in the long run. He cited the case of terrazzo floors, which are easy to clean and do not require painting, in addition to having an extremely long life.

In fact Mr. Giblyn said: "There is nothing going into the new building that is not essential and absolutely required for the health, safety and well-being of the children." In

Your Right To Know is The Key to All Your Liberties

It Snowed Four Inches . . .

It snowed four inches in Jerusalem one day during the Arab war in Palestine. So, phenomenal was this weather the Arabs and Jews observed an informal truce. During it, youths of the two communities pelted each other with snowballs for hours, hurling the clean white spheres across Princess Mary Avenue which divides the Arab-Jewish quarters. It will take more than a four inch snow to cool the passions in Palestine . . . or in any of the world's other troubled places. It will take broad, calm understanding.

We share with you this week the thought that "the advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace" . . . begins with a will to understand.

And as in international affairs, so it is in our own local community affairs . . . "the advancement of community understanding, good-will, and community progress" . . . begins with the will to understand.

With this approach on the part of all the citizens of our community, who is there to say our village will not become an even finer place in which to live?

May 1950

This is the month when Freeporters are asked to open their hearts and their purses to help their own. It is the month chosen by the Freeport corps of The Salvation Army for their annual drive for funds. They ask for $6,500.00 for which they pledge to do the best work possible to alleviate sorrow and suffering amongst the poor and needy of our village. The money collected on this drive is spent for just that. Money used for administration; and religious work comes from those who attend the services; and other sources.

All the money you give will be spent in Freeport for Freeporters. It is difficult to enumerate the many services the Army renders from day to day. Creed or color are no barriers. Their friendly helping hands have been extended to many during the past year in a quiet but effective way.

They now extend their hands to you for help to reach their modest goal.

It takes less time to do a thing right than it does to explain why you did it wrong.

Ray Clements

Letters to The Editor

Dear Mr. Clements,
I would appreciate it if you would publish the following letter.
Everybody, including the politicians are aware of the fact that "non-political" thing of the president around the country is a political junkie. This is definitely the start of a political campaign, only instead of it being paid for by the political machine it is intended to benefit, they are charging the bill to the taxpayers.

I understand this trip will cost about half a million dollars, and it strongly object to this expenditure.
W. B. Tompkins.

Ed. Note:
Glad to oblige. . . It is my understanding that when a politician makes a trip at public expense, such a trip is a "mission." Believe me, Harry S. Truman is on quite a "mission."

Dear Mr. Clements,
In the column "THE EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK" you mention that THE LEADER plans a series soon on HISTORIC FREEPORT. As a new resident of Freeport I feel this would be extremely interesting.
Mrs. Louise Thompson.

Ed. Note:
We hope to have such a column soon. I feel such a column will interest not only new residents like yourself, but many of the older residents as well. Thank you for writing.

Dear Mr. Clements,
I think you could improve THE LEADER by starting a "teen-ager" page. We all read THE LEADER but there is not too much "teen-ager" news in it.
Mrs. John Williamson.

Ed. Note:
That is a very fine suggestion. We have given thought to such a page. Perhaps we will have one soon.

Dear Mr. Clements,
Last week one of the letters to the editor complained about vacant lots being used as "dumping grounds" and being an eye-sore to the community. I believe there is a law on our village books which deals with this. Is there such a law? If not, there certainly should be.
Mrs. B. C. Harrison.

Ed. Note:
Yes, there is such a law. Complaints of this nature may be referred to the village authorities. They will take prompt action. You will find they co-operate very nicely.

Dear Mr. Clements:
I was very gratified with the interest you have shown in the proposed YOUTH CENTER in Bennington Park. Such a CENTER is very much needed and I hope your efforts meet with huge success.
Edward Cody.

Ed. Note:
Thank you very much. The response to this appeal was splendid. I hope only that those who so willingly purchased tickets will also attend the concert.

Dear Editor:
I am a newcomer to Freeport and a new subscriber. I would like to get information regarding fishing in Freeport and the waterfront in general.

Is there any agency I can write to and receive this information? I am very pleased with your paper—why don't you add waterfront news?
A.K.

Ed. Note:
If you go to the Municipal Building on North Ocean ave. they will give you a waterfront booklet. Incidentally, we are going to have waterfront news soon.

Dear Editor:
I thought you might be interested in the case of a sales lady in a Main st. store who is a credit to her profession. Brooklyn relatives of mine came to Freeport Saturday and decided to do some shopping while in town. They stopped in at Landau's, 78 South Main st. A Mrs. Eltry Behr waited on them.

She did everything possible to please them, but could not find just the thing they wanted. Finally she suggested they go to the Hempstead store.

"Will you get credit for the sale if we buy in Hempstead?" the woman asked.
"Oh, that won't make any difference to me. All I want to see is that our customers are satisfied," Mrs. Behr replied.

As a result my folks plan to come to Freeport every Saturday to do their shopping.
Respectfully,
A Reader.

VASIL'S VARIETIES

By Eddie Vasil

Without or with offense to friends or foes,
I sketch your world exactly as it goes.—Byron.

LEADER'S DIGEST . . . Freeport merchants giving full support to REV. R. G. HARRIS, Pastor of Second Baptist Church, on his project for a youth center in Bennington Park. (Greatly needed in this concentrated area.) . . . Wealth is not a stranger to SAM GOLDEN (a leading builder and real estate owner) he had his own chauffeur, footman, caddy and butler when only 23 years old. . . One of the most eligible bachelors in town: DONALD HALE of the jewelry shop bearing his name on W. Merrick rd. (He's tall and handsome—served in the South Pacific.) . . . New bartender at the American Legion Dugout winning many friends with his friendly personality. (He's also an ace mixologists.)

AROUND TOWN . . . Swanky wedding bells planned by three Main st. merchant princes when their daughters marry soon: DAVE LEVY, JACK GREEN, and NORMAN KUPPERSMIDT. . . Bery of beauties surrounding JOE GOLDBLATT Saturday. (He's their "angel"—backs their ball team.) . . . Didja know that BARNEY HOROWITZ once owned a chain of shoe stores from N. Y. to St. Louis? . . . Tourists starting to visit Freeport early this season. Maine, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. license plates checked in SHORECREST HOTEL parking lot. (Dave Shapiro has a personal mailing list of 20,000 names.) . . . North Bellmore shoppers increasingly favoring Main Stem stores. (Bus fare is the same from there to Freeport as it is to Bellmore.)

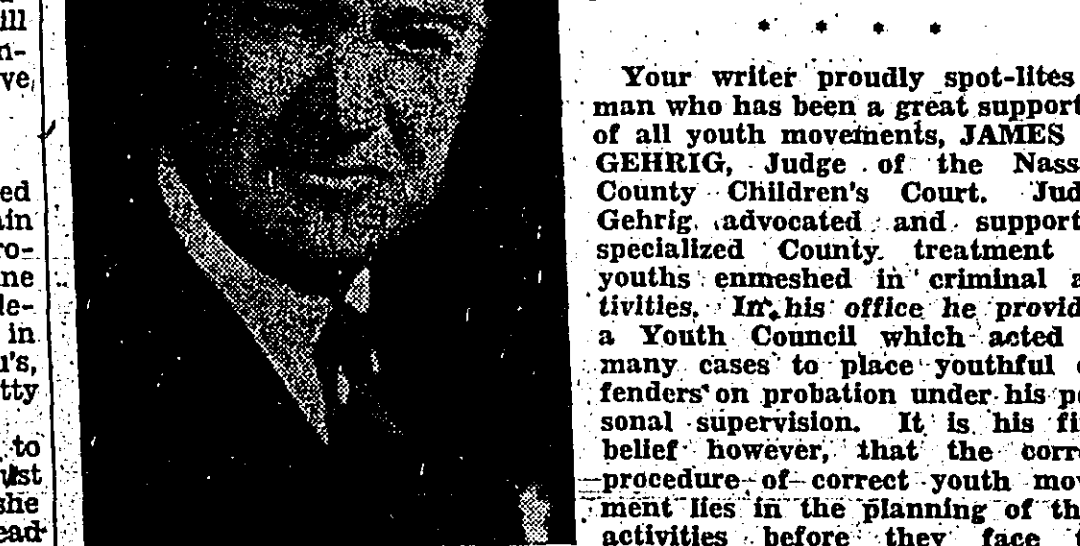

OFF THE CUFF . . . FRANK BRADY (barkeep at THE STOP) renewing acquaintances with friends he made in the service. (Three motored in from L. A. to see him but spent hours getting lost on unmarked highways.) . . . Congratulations to HARRY STRECKEER, appointed consulting engineer by Rockville Centre around that well-known legal-eagle is not too happy about the terra-firma conditions around his new home. . . Best bet in baseball: June 4th at the Freeport Stadium when the 1928 Nassau County Champs tackle FHS. . . Patrolman HENRY SCHWABER joins the baby parade in Dec. . . Fellow copper JOHNNY CHUISANO perambulating his new baby every chance he gets.

FREEPORTING THE NEWS . . . Liquor salesman MORRIS KESSELMAN bought a new yacht which is a dream. . . JEWELER JEFF PARIS converted another to our waterfront clan: HARRY FREY, (Brookline ave. merchant) is looking for dockage for his 40' cruiser. . . What's this about a move to stop some of the waterfront boys from doing business on Sunday? (It's the only day that most sportsmen can do their hobby shopping.) . . . EDWARD (Williams Furniture) WELTON preparing to welcome dept. store buyer JIM McMANUS to the staff. . . MILTON FRIEDLICH (Royal Appliances) proving to be FLO O'SHAUNESSY'S best press agent. (Swears by her food and service.) The Merchant's Luncheon Club meets here daily (O'Shaunessy's Tavern). . . The beauty working at the POOP DECK BAR has a voice that's even better than her sister's (who's a featured night club singer in N.Y.)

TID-BITS . . . FREEPORT Police Benevolent Association's annual affair slated for August 30th at the Stadium will feature one of the biggest names in show business. (Two hour program with the top stars of stage-screen and TV should make them tops in police organization presentations.) . . . Didja know that Freeport has the largest municipally owned power plant in the U. S. (TOM MOORE, Supr., has all the details and low cost of electricity should prove great attraction to prospective industry.) . . . Midget racing tycoon JAKE KEDENBERG being body-guarded by his attractive Missus as he leaves Freeport Bank.

AS THE TWIG IS BENT—SO GROWS THE TREE. . . From the youth of today come the leaders of tomorrow. . . It's all a question of proper guidance in the right direction and at the proper time. Many boys could start off on the wrong foot if they started off with the wrong group. Constructive activity has proven to be the best solution and in this respect PATROLMAN JOSEPH ROMEIKA, who heads the FREEPORT POLICE BOYS CLUBS, deserves full public commendation from the citizens of Freeport for the excellent work he's accomplished single-handedly. This writer prays that this literary offer can serve as a token of this appreciation.

BUT JOE ROMEIKA NEEDS HELP . . . Other police boys clubs are grand organizations but the contributions and support they are soliciting in Freeport do not benefit the Freeport Police Boys Clubs. Citizens who have been approached are confused; they mistake one for the other. Only help given to the FPBC will go to the FPBC. Give for a cause that concerns our own village first. This money will go towards a station wagon greatly needed for transportation.

JAMES N. GEHRIG

said Judge Gehrig, "there would be less juvenile delinquents." Let's help Joe Romeika hip our children . . . give him all your support.

DURYEA OROHID . . . This flowery token, the DURYEA OROHID ORATION is awarded to a woman who has lived her life filled with love and friendships. In this world of chaos, when God is forgotten and when false gold is accepted for its glitter, she has unselfishly maintained her position as a pillar of her church. A fine woman, an ideal mother, and loving grandmother: It is a pleasure to offer this tribute to MRS. MARY K. FITCHER of 303 South Ocean ave.

Community Choral Presents Its Spring Concert

Artistic Performance
Attended by Only 250;
Monologist Assists

The Freeport Community Choral presented its annual spring concert Saturday night before a meagre audience of 250 persons in the auditorium of the Freeport High School. Under the direction of Robert T. Tavis, Jr., the singers lived up to the excellent reputation established by the group on previous occasions and those who missed the concert missed a most enjoyable program. It seems strange that the Choral, which is a unit of the Adult Education Program, should attract full houses for two nights in the fall when it presents a light opera and draw only a handful at its May event.

The Choral opened the program by singing "Omnipotens," by Schumann, with Terry Greenblatt, as soprano soloist, and Betty Geer presiding at the organ. Dickinson's "Still Grows the Evening," followed, and Gissla Kern sang the incidental soprano solo. Other numbers in the group were "Soon Ah Will Be Done," by Dawson; "City Called Heaven," by Johnson; "Volk Cesele," by Alcock; and "Praise the Name of the Lord," by Nikolsky.

Gertrude Speare, monologist entertained with a group of original characted sketches, which proved very amusing.

After the intermission the Choral sang "Ballad for Americans" by LaRouche and Robinson, with Charles Dorman, baritone, as soloist; "Russian Picnic," by Enders, with Leander Minnerly, tenor as soloist; "Song of India" by Rimsky-Korsakoff, with soloist by FLO O'SHAUNESSY, soprano, and a medley from "Oakhallama" by Rogers and Hammerstein, with James VanGaasbeck, tenor, and E. MacLeish, bass, giving vocal solos. Miss Speare also gave some more amusing character sketches. Each number was followed by enthusiastic applause.

Usherettes for the evening in charge of Florence Rhodes, Virginia Bennett, June Carman, Rosalind and Theresa Carri, Evelyn Hammerl, Faith Minnerly, Jane Rawlings and Sheila Ward.

Leonard Allen was house manager, Guy Fairbridge, business manager, and Arthur Greenblatt, stage manager.

Members of the Choral are: Soprano—Doris Andrews, Betty Burns, Doris Constable, Emily Davis, Betty Geer, Alice Goldenson, Terry Greenblatt, Grace Hisey, Heddie Ramiensky, Nancy Isaacs, Betty Keene, Mary Jean Kelly, Gissla Kern, Arlene Muller, Alice Quarty, Marion Raleigh, Jennifer Rawlings, Florence Rhodes, Gladys Schultz, Marie Thompson, Jean Van Gaasbeck, Mary Van Gaasbeck, Marie Zivcovich, Alice Zivcovich, Bohlander, Di-Croce, Mabel Green, Alma Hattianach, Leone Isaacs, Gladys Kirkwood, Magel Laskell, Jeanne Miller, Sara Miller, Virginia Moores, Margaret Nordland, Marilyn Ryder, Mary Smith, Frances Spitz, Tenor—Gary De Weerd, Edward Oline, Leander Minnerly, Wesley Minnerly, George Olen, Harry Powell, John Rawlings, Stuart Tanner, James Van

Hypnotist Entertains Copal Club Members

Carl Schetz, of Forest Hills, president of New York State Society of Hypnotists, gave an amazing display of his art at the monthly meeting of the Copal Club of the Transfiguration P. E. Church. Numerous members of the club submitted themselves to his tender mercies for the entertainment of their companions. A woman who detests lemons found one slightly tart, but otherwise tasty.

Officers for the next year were elected during the business session as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher, succeeding Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Nichols, president couple; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fleman, corresponding secretaries, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Woods, treasurers. On the committee of arrangements for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Carver, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. John Uhle, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. William Lindmark, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miles, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schade.

P.B.C. Entertains At Elks Big Show

Present 12 Acts At Lodge's Annual Event Lodge Committee Heads

The Freeport Police Boys' Club put on a dozen acts at the annual variety show of the Freeport Lodge of Elks in the clubhouse Friday night, with Eric V. Painter as master of ceremonies. There also were several professional acts and the Drill Team members appeared in a comedy wrestling number. Frederick Wood presided at the piano during the P.B.C. show and Patrolman Joseph Romelka was the director.

The show was opened with the P.B.C. band playing two selections, Frankie Torrance, 19, recently picked by a television scout, sang, "Daddy's Little Girl" and "Dear Hearts and Gentle People." Tom Chester, who also is to appear on television, and Johnny Healy, 14-year-old lads, sang "Dearie" and "Said My Pajamas."

Herman Stenzler, blind accordionist, played "Tico Tico," Grove Marino sang, "My Hero" and Foolish Heart; Chester and Catherine Collins, appeared as a tap dance team; Bill Hahn sang, "The Desert Song" and "Irish Lullaby;" Miss Collins danced the rumba and hula dances and Hahn and Miss Marino sang as a duet, "Make Believe." "Dear Mother of Mine" was sung as a solo by Scottie MacKenzie and the program was brought to a close with Patrolman Romelka, guitar; Edward Kapsak, violin, and Stenzler, playing old time melodies.

By Arthur Pointer

The Barrett family of Roosevelt and Ray Nathan, also of Roosevelt, entertained. Dancing followed the performance. C. Curtis Fulton headed the entertainment committee.

Exalted Ruler George W. Berns this week announced the chairman of the standing committees of the lodge as follows:

Advisory, H. Alfred Volmer; Americanism, Dr. Frederick T. Bean; Birthdays, George Tydemann; Board of Governors, Walter DeSak; Board of Trustees, Herbert A. McIlroy; Bonds, Fred C. ANNOUNCING MORE USEFUL AND VALUABLE TELEPHONE SERVICE

New "Metropolitan Plan" features expanded toll-free calling areas and savings on calls to New York City and Southern Westchester

After years of planning and preparation, the Metropolitan Service Plan was introduced last Sunday. This plan is the most ambitious project of its kind ever attempted, linking millions of telephones in Nassau County, Southern Westchester and New York City into one vast Metropolitan Service area. Every telephone customer in this area will benefit, and we are confident it will make telephone service even more useful and valuable.

A folder has been sent to all customers which describes fully this new "Metropolitan Plan."

HERE ARE FOUR BIG ADVANTAGES:

1. Toll-Free Calling Areas Are Enlarged. Under Metropolitan Service, customers will be able to call neighboring central offices without payment of toll charges—greatly increasing the value of telephone service.

2. Residence Customers may choose between individual-line message-rate service and flat-rate service.

HOW TO DECIDE WHICH SERVICE IS BEST FOR YOU: If you make a daily average of more than two calls within the new flat-rate unlimited calling area, you usually will benefit from flat-rate service. If you make a daily average of less than two calls within the flat-rate area and occasional calls to other points of the Metropolitan Service area, you usually will benefit from message-rate service.

Should you choose the new message-rate service, it will be provided when individual lines are available. A return-mail postcard is being sent you so that you may let us know if you want or are interested in individual-line message-rate service.

3. Message-Rate Customers may use their message-unit allowance for calls to New York City and Southern Westchester as well as within most of Nassau County.

4. Rates on calls to most points in the "Metropolitan Plan" area are reduced at least 5% and will be charged on a message-unit basis. All message-units will be combined and will appear as a single item on your bill, regardless of whether you have message-rate or flat-rate service. The number of message-units charged for calls within the Metropolitan Service area appears in a folder mailed to you.

IMPORTANT FOR DIAL CUSTOMERS

The new Metropolitan Service Plan, described in detail in a folder sent to you, provides wider dialing areas for most dial customers. Every customer who has a dial telephone should have received a card listing the central offices that should now be dialed from his telephone. This dial card is very important and should be kept near your telephone. If you have a dial telephone and haven't yet received such a card, please call your Telephone Business Office and one will be sent you.

Here are the exchanges included in the new, expanded toll-free calling area for

Freeport 8 and 9
Baldwin 3

Your toll-free, unlimited calling area includes the following exchanges:

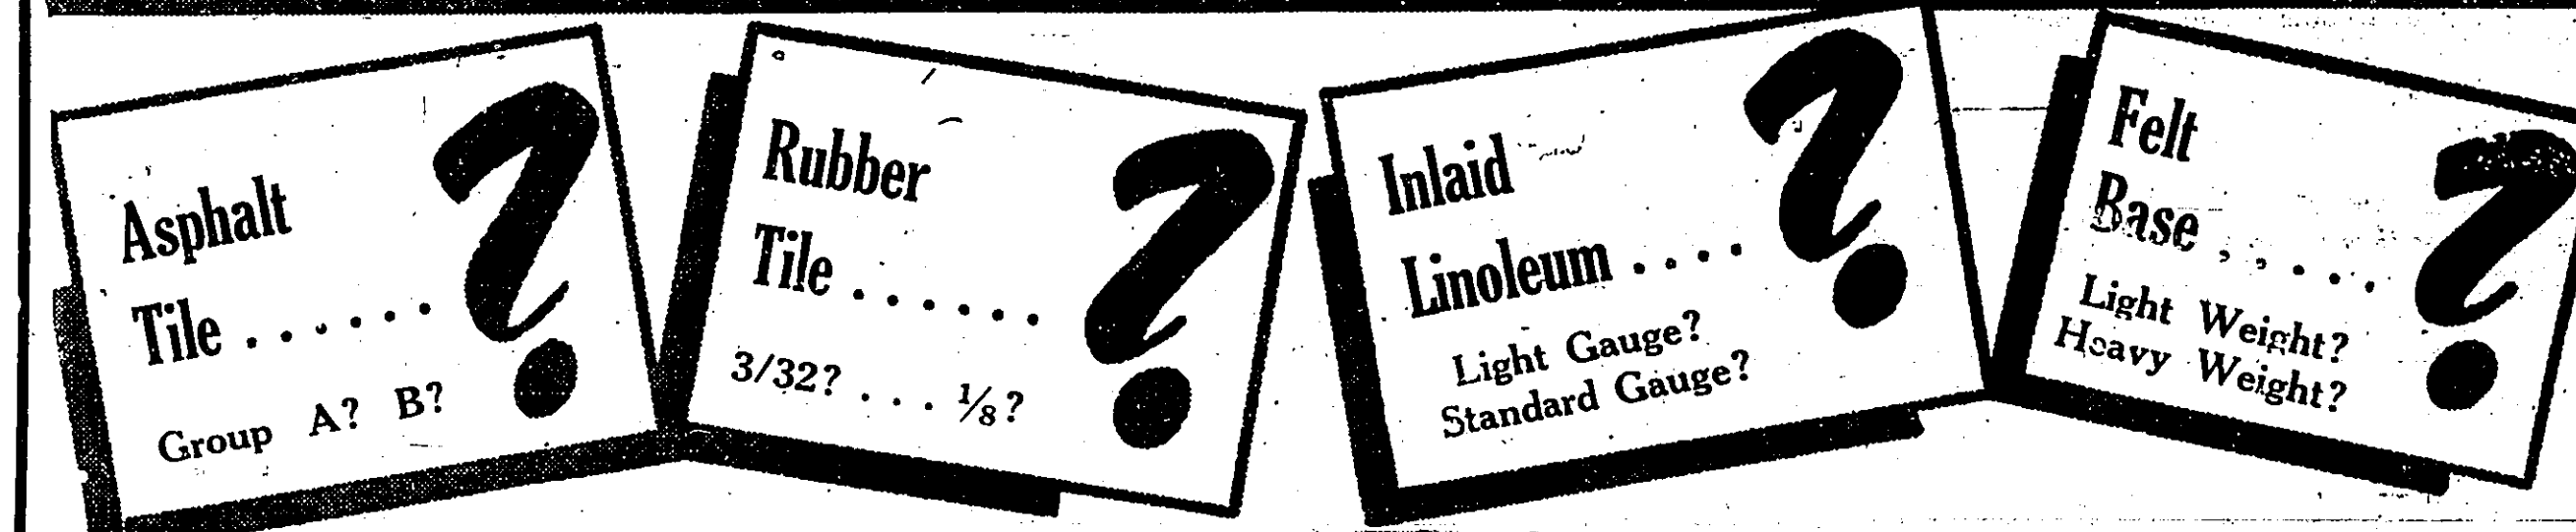

Baldwin 3	Lynbrook 3, 9

Hempstead 2, 7	Wanago 2
Long Beach 6

MESSAGE-RATE CUSTOMERS:

CONSUMER EDUCATIONAL ARTICLE NO. 1

Dear Reader: In view of the fact that very few laws exist to protect the public against misleading and tricky advertising, the Carpet Mart of Hempstead inaugurates a series of Consumer - Educational Articles, of which this is the first in our own field of Floor Covering: CARPET, RUGS, ASPHALT TILE, RUBBER TILE and Other floor covering items.

1. Carpet: BEWARE of the ad that regularly says "33 1/3 to 70% off regular prices." That seller is supposedly selling at less than wholesale and certainly cannot be reliable.

2. Carpet: BEWARE of the ad that offers floor covering is going out of business and should have a Liquidation License No. or the ad is deliberately misleading; no retailer can sell at wholesale prices and stay in business or be reliable.

3. Carpet: BEWARE of the ad that lists a lot of mills, then a very low price, but fails to state what quality of carpet is offered. That seller just hopes to pull in customers who don't know that every mill manufactures from 10 to 35 different qualities and weaves.

4. Carpet: BEWARE of the cheap and low priced Twist Carpet ads. The cheap twist carpeting flooding the market today is poor in quality, wretched in wear and ragged in looks; and the Carpet Mart of Hempstead will NOT handle such shoddy goods.

5. Carpet: BEWARE of the ad listing heavy sculptured Wilton carpet at a low square yard price without stating it to be imported goods from Europe, which is superior in weight of wool and quality.

6. Carpet: BEWARE of the ads that state "Below Our Costs" as obviously that store is headed for bankruptcy and cannot be reliable.

7. Asphalt Tile: BEWARE of the ads listing group A for a low price without informing you it is "Black Only," and listing group B without informing you that this is only the duller marbled color group.

8. Inlaid Linoleum: BEWARE of the ads that list "Genuine Inlaid Linoleum" at a low price without stating it to be "Light Gauge" which is inferior to the heavier Standard inlaid quality.

9. Rubber Tile: BEWARE of the ad that offers a low price, but fails to state the thickness of the tile. Some Sellers use the 3/32" tiles in place of the heavier 1/8 in. rubber tile popularized on Long Island by the Carpet Mart of Hempstead.

10. Felt Base: BEWARE of the ads that fail to state whether it is light weight or the heavy weight goods featured by the Carpet Mart of Hempstead.

The Carpet Mart of Hempstead is proud to state that our store fulfills the only safeguard possible, which is "buy rugs and carpeting made by a reputable manufacturer and sold in a reputable store." An installation by the Carpet Mart is your Guarantee of Satisfaction.
